Dear David

Reference

Many thanks for giving me the opportunity to provide a reference for your company.

We are delighted to be associated with Newline who have proven they are the number one service provider in our sector. As market leaders ourselves it is important we can rely on the very best that ICT can offer.

Newline have been fundamental in transforming the way our business operates. Most businesses require an IT strategy nowadays and Newline have allowed us to achieve our objectives by providing the necessary infrastructure.

We have enjoyed working with Newline for many years and have found their service invaluable. Their knowledge of the auction system is hugely impressive and allows a practical approach to providing integrated solutions at all our marts.

Our sector is fortunate to have such a high quality specialist.

I would recommend Newline to any livestock auction company.

Yours sincerely

Neil McLean
